

Marcos Moore Jr.

10742 East 34th Street Yuma, Arizona 85365 * mooreaginfo@hotmail.com * (928) 446-5642

Qualifications:

The ability to read, speak, and write in Spanish. I have extensive public speaking and leadership training. I have worked in international business, food safety, and agronomic consulting. I have also headed crop damage investigations. I am a certified pesticide handler trainer and certified crop advisor. I am a graduate of the prestigious Center For Rural Leadership with the University of Arizona

Education

1994-2002 Associate's of Applied Science Degree: Plant Science Arizona Western College
Associate's of Applied Science Degree: Agricultural Business Management Arizona Western College
Certified Crop Advisor: International Endorsement; Arizona Board Certified

2007 Bachelors of Science Agricultural Systems Management: University of Arizona, Yuma

Experience

2004- MOORE AG LOGISTICS LLC- Owner

Assist farmers in the creation of soil fertility and plant nutritional programs for all crops grown. Provide recommendations on fertilizer sources and quantities; create GPS/GIS maps of fields for variable rate applications of fertilizer; consult and derive conclusions to undesirable crop development; head investigations for crop damages; construct agronomic reports at the end of growing season. To provide agricultural firms the service of product, asset, and personal management. Work as a liaison between farmers and the federal government in government agricultural programs.

2000-2004 Agronomist- Stanworth Crop Consultants

Assist farmers in the creation of soil fertility and plant nutritional programs for all crops grown. Provide recommendations on fertilizer sources and quantities; create GPS/GIS maps of fields for variable rate applications of fertilizer; consult and derive conclusions to undesirable crop development; head investigations for crop damages; construct agronomic reports at the end of growing season.
(Several thousand acres)

1998-1999 Food Safety Analyst- Salyer American Fresh Foods

Implemented and maintained accurate records of all pesticide applications applied on all vegetable crops; developed and maintained a running record system of pesticide and microbacterial residue levels on all vegetable crops to assure optimal food safety; developed and maintained a system which compiled and monitored heavy metal levels in soil and irrigation water. (Several thousand acres)

1995-1997 Technical Marketing Agent- International Seed Technology

Planned and conducted comparison seed trials with various agricultural firms. Functioned as a liaison between I.S.T and other companies; was responsible for market intelligence; constructed market structure reports; supervised production crews on special projects; conducted and attended promotional activities. Duties performed in all countries in the Western Hemisphere.

Associations

Arizona Western College, Department of Agricultural Sciences Advisory Board; University of Arizona-Yuma Advisory Board; State Chair, Young Ranchers and Farmers Committee, Board of Directors Arizona Farm Bureau, and Yuma County Farm Bureau Board of Directors; Arizona Farm Bureau Labor Advisory Committee; AZFB Labor Advisory Committee.